

Rule 9010-1 ADMISSION TO PRACTICE

A. Admission in General: Attorneys who are admitted to the bar of the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania are admitted to the bar of this Court.

B. Pro Hac Vice Admission: No one, other than an attorney regularly admitted to practice in this Court, shall appear in any proceeding on behalf of any trustee, creditor, or other party in interest, except upon motion filed with the Clerk and order entered by the Court. Every motion to be admitted pro hac vice must be signed and filed by an attorney admitted to practice in this District. The motion must substantially conform to Local Form No. 18. If a motion for pro hac vice is made orally in open Court, it shall be followed promptly by the filing of a written motion signed by local counsel and the applicant. The Court may require counsel to provide evidence of admission in another district. An attorney admitted pro hac vice or local counsel must appear at Court hearings and be prepared to address all issues set for argument.

C. Association with Local Counsel Required: An attorney not admitted to practice by the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania may not be admitted pro hac vice in this Court unless associated with an attorney who is a member of the Bar of this Court and who maintains an office in this District for the regular transaction of business, upon whom all notices, orders, pleadings and other papers filed in the case shall be served and who shall be required to sign all papers filed with the Clerk.

1. Claims Litigation: Association with local counsel shall not be required for the filing or prosecution of a proof of claim or response to an objection to a proof of claim. The Court may, however, direct counsel to claimant to associate with local counsel if the claim litigation will involve extensive discovery or trial time.
2. Government Attorneys: An attorney not admitted in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania but admitted in another United States District Court may appear representing the United States of America (or any officer or agency thereof) or any State (or officer or agency thereof) provided that a certification is filed, signed by that attorney, stating (a) the courts in which the attorney is admitted, (b) that the attorney is in good standing in all jurisdictions in which the attorney has been admitted, and (c) that the attorney will be bound by the Rules of this Court and submits to the jurisdiction of this Court for disciplinary purposes in connection with the matter in which the attorney is appearing.

D. The local rules of the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania as amended from time to time shall apply as to discipline of attorneys.
